Easter season services begin March 6

By Robert Morrow

It hardly seems like Advent and the Christmas season is over and already we are entering the season of preparation for Easter.

Here are the highlights of services you and your family will be offered as you embark on your journey to the foot of the cross and the empty tomb.

Wednesday Lenten services will begin March 6 with Ash Wednesday and the five services will continue through April 10. The services will be at 11 a.m. in the sanctuary followed by a soup-and-bread lunch in Hoffius Hall.

Palm Sunday services will be at 10 a.m. April 14 in the sanctuary. The Maundy Thursday Tenebrae service will be at 7 p.m. April 18 in the sanctuary.

In the Tenebrae service we will read the passion narrative of Luke's Gospel, sing traditional Holy Week hymns, and extinguish a single candle recalling the darkness and desolation of the crucifixion.

There will be no Good Friday service to preserve the day for your personal devotion.

Our Easter celebration of the resurrection of Jesus will be at 10 a.m. Sunday, April 21, in the sanctuary.

Come, join with our congregation and all Christians to reflect on Christ's sacrifice and worship the Lord of the resurrection at this holiest time of the year.

Favorite Psalms to be basis of Lenten services

March 6th (Ash Wednesday) marks the beginning of this year's Lenten Season. Our English word "lent" comes from an Anglo-Saxon word which means "to lengthen," and is associated with the lengthening of days in the spring.

Dating back to the Fourth Century C.E. (Common Era), Lent is a period of reflection, preparation and renewal of the disciplines of faith. The traditional liturgical color for the season is purple, reflecting the church's focus on penitence and discipleship.

During the first two centuries of the church, it used this time to commemorate the 40 hours Jesus spent in the tomb.

By the fourth century, the time leading up to Easter was extended to 40 days and was a time of preparation for catechumens (instruction of converts), who would be baptized into the church on Easter.

The Council of Nicaea marks the earliest reference to a 40-day period (not counting Sundays).

Ash Wednesday was eventually recognized as the traditional beginning of Lent. It derives its name from the Hebrew Scriptures when "sackcloth and ashes" were used as symbols of repentance and turning to God.

"Fat Tuesday," the day before the beginning of Lent, developed as a way to feast and "party hard" prior to the fasting of Lent.

Several good ways to get involved at the Kirk

Church Statistics:

As of Feb. 8 – Membership, 319; family units, 215.

Coffee Servers:

In the past, serving coffee after the Sunday morning worship service has been the responsibility of our Shepherd Groups. This is changing. Now servers will come from volunteers in the Kirk congregation.

Wendy Gage will be the contact person handling sign-up of the volunteers. Coffee will continue to be made by those who open the church on Sunday mornings.

Mardi Gras Party:

Mark your calendar for the Mardi Gras program at 6 p.m. March 4 in Hoffius Hall. It should be a lot of fun for everyone. Cost is $10 for each person. Tickets are available at the Sunday morning after-service coffee hour or in the church office during the week.

Lenten Services:

We will soon be starting Lenten lunch services. The meaningful devotional periods at 11 a.m. are being delivered by Pastor Bill Bailey in the sanctuary, followed by a wonderful selection of soups and breads in Hoffius

The Pastor's Corner Bill Bailey

This year, I will be leading our worship by selecting some of my favorite Psalms. I will be focusing on how these ancient prayers and hymns have been used to guide the faith of the ancient Hebrews as well as Jews and Christians today.

Make plans to join us as our congregation joins Christians all over the world in observing Lent. On March 6, we will gather at 11 a.m. for our traditional "Ash Wednesday" worship service – the imposition of ashes.

This will be followed at 11:30 a.m. by an informal lunch of soup and bread in our Hoffius Hall.

As always, you are encouraged to bring guests. These guests are welcome to attend all or part of the program. I invite you to join me and others for a 40-day adventure in which we seek to deepen our faith in Christ.

Hall. It is a great way to spend a Wednesday in the celebration of the Lenten season. The first luncheon will be March 6.

These are a few of the activities going on in the Kirk. Check the church calendar for additional events.

I encourage members to make sure you are in a Shepherd Group. This is an excellent way to get to know other Kirk members and get involved in church activities.

Committees are another way of becoming involved in the Kirk Family. Many members have experiences from their own life which will benefit a committee and help their programs.

Worship Committee has a lot going on

By Nancy Patton

Our Session at Work feature for March is Worship Committee. It has eight subcommittee chairs and many volunteers.

The primary responsibility of the committee is to assist the pastor and music personnel in offering rich and meaningful worship in regular and special services.

Worship subcommittees and their duties are as follows:

Sanctuary Decorations: Directs the decoration of the sanctuary for Advent, Christmas and Easter with poinsettias, palms and spring plants. Preparation of the palms for the disposition of Ashes and the placement of the banners and paraments also fall in this area of responsibility.

Ushers: Schedules ushers and ensures their duties are carried out.

Liturgists: Schedules weekly volunteers to assist in the worship service.

Flowers: Placing the flower calendar, ordering flowers desired by individual members of the congregation, and communicating with the church office about donor information.

Memorial Service Co-ordinator: Works with the pastor and staff to ensure all aspects of memorial services run smoothly and the needs of the family are met.

Communion Preparation: Prepares Communion elements, sets the Communion table for Sunday morning worship and cleans up after Communion.

Informal Worship Service: Serves as liaison to represent the needs of the Informal Service to the Session and to secure leadership for that service.

The Worship committee budget supports the special music we enjoy throughout the year. We also provide all the supplies associated with worship throughout the year.

Each of the subcommittees operate independently and report to the moderator any needs or concerns they experience. We do not meet on a regular basis unless there is a need to discuss a purchase or a concern.

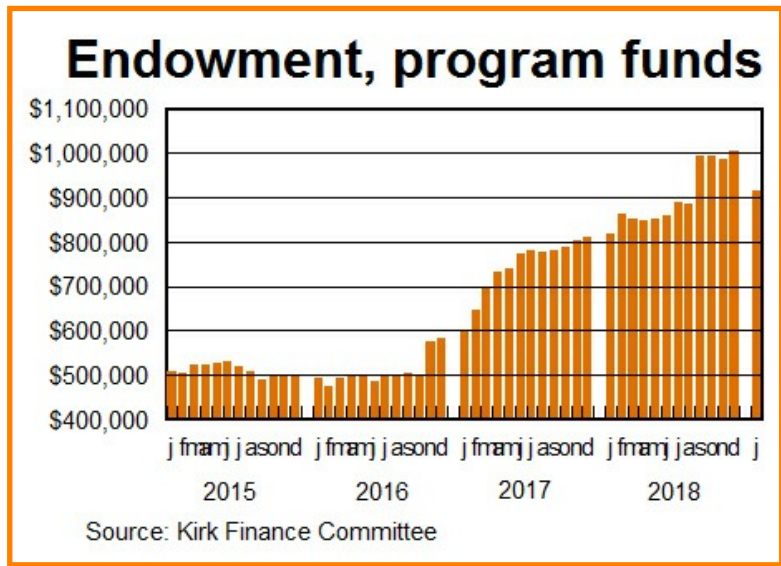

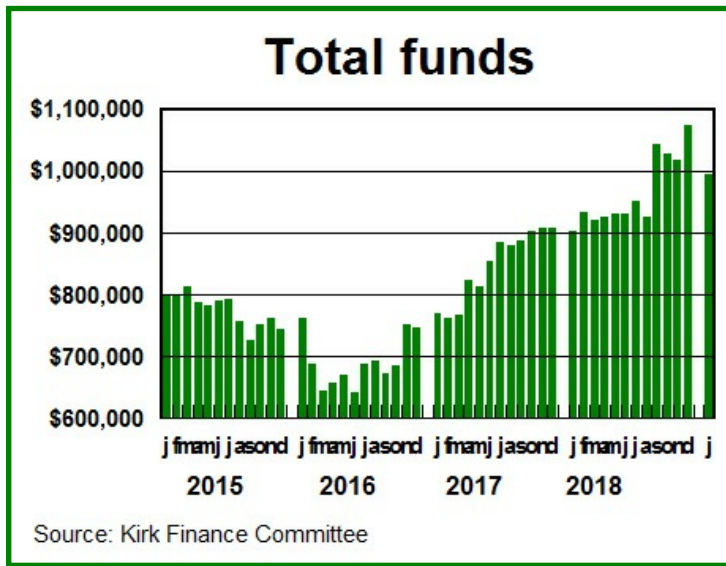

Subcommittee chairs are Wendy Gage, Priscilla Hayek, Sandy Adams, Marilyn Johnson, Margery McIntosh, Pat McPheters, Lucy Allen and Sally Fink.

The communion team is Jane Moore, Suzanne New, Barbara Kalsbeek, Gail Salmen and Jim Patton. Wendy Gage is Vice Moderator. Any questions can be addressed to Wendy or me.

Nancy Patton is Moderator of the Worship Committee.

Thank you for generously supporting our Mission Dollar campaign by placing your single dollar bills in the offering plate. A total of $665 was collected in January.

If you wish to give more than a dollar, please use the envelopes in the pew racks. We are always grateful for your generous gifts and prayers.

Thinking of you...

Each Saturday and Sunday the Congregational Care Committee will be asking Kirk members to sign a beautiful card to be mailed to a church member who has not been able to attend services due to illness or disability.

Please add your signature to these cards and join the congregation in wishing others well.

Thank you.

2019 Pledge Drive falls short, help needed

By Denny Zymboly

The Stewardship Committee wants to thank those who committed a pledge for the operation of the Kirk in 2019.

Unfortunately the total General Fund and Building Fund pledges fell $12,270 below this year’s total budget. This led to the Session approving the Financial Committee’s recommended deficit budget.

With only 63 percent of the current 217 family units pledging, we would hope those who have not pledged will come forward with a pledge for 2019 if it is at all financially possible for you to do so.

The chart is a recap of the pledges we have received.

Denny Zymboly is chair of the Stewardship Committee.

Help decorate the Kirk with Easter flowers

Let’s all help decorate the Kirk on Easter Sunday, April 21, by adorning the sanctuary with an array of lovely spring blooms. Your participation can bring glory to God and enrichment for all our resurrection expectation.

Order forms will appear in the Sunday bulletin March 24, March 31 and April 7. Choices are Easter lily, azalea or hydrangea plants. They may be in memory or in honor of a loved one or friend.

Thanks much!

Help wanted: Cooks needed once a month to help Mission Committee

By Ed Baldwin

The Kirk Mission Committee cooking team has openings!

The happy cooks pictured are Daryl Henry and Ed Baldwin. They are shown in the kitchen of the Samaritan Ministries Gospel Rescue Mission for Men in Hot Springs. Our commitment there is to cook and serve the evening meal the third Thursday of every month.

We arrive around 5 p.m. to prepare the meal, which is served some two hours later. Cleanup is usually completed by 8.

Often we cook red beans and rice with homemade cornbread. We usually feed 25-35 men.

Daryl Henry and Ed Baldwin prepare meals once each month at Samaritan Ministries Gospel Rescue Mission in Hot Springs. They need some help.

We need a couple of individuals who would commit to serving on a regular basis. Call me at 501 915-8573 for details.

Psst! Pilgrimages aren't what you think

By Martha Nielsen

Twice each year, in April and October, you may have been invited to participate in a three-day weekend called Arkansas Presbyterian Pilgrimage.

Many dismiss the invitations because of misgivings about what happens at a Pilgrimage. You may think it's a zealous revival-style meeting in which you will be asked to make a public "testimony," or you may be required to talk about things you don't want to share.

Let me ease your mind.

We believe Pilgrimage participants are there to reconnect, renew, and refine their relationship with God.

One of the first things made clear is no one is asked to do anything with which they are uncomfortable. However, you will be listened to and your voice will be heard if you choose to speak.

What are people asked to do at a Pilgrimage?

- Relax and be served fully by others without the need to reciprocate.
- Open yourself to God's unconditional love and develop a deeper relationship with Christ.
- Spend quiet time listening for God's guidance for your own personal journey.
- Laugh and sing like nobody else is watching as you grow with your fellow Pilgrims.

Our next Pilgrimage will be Thursday through Sunday, April 25-28, at Ferncliff Conference Center near Little Rock. There you'll find hotel-style rooms, good and plentiful food, a rustic but worshipful chapel and an outpouring of more love than you can imagine.

Four of us from the Kirk will be part of the volunteer staff that weekend because we want to share with others the kind of experiences we've had. Staff members are constantly reminded this is God's weekend, not ours, and we are merely facilitators.

With all this in mind, we invite you to put aside your fears and prayerfully consider what God may be asking of you in taking the next step in your journey with Him.

If you would like more information, contact me, Carol Clark, Jim Reimers or Della Reimers.

Martha Nielsen is a volunteer at the Presbyterian Pilgrimage..

Flamenco dancing one of the sights in Spain

By Joyce Leeming

After seeing the sites in Lisbon, Pastor Bill Bailey and his group will travel by deluxe motor coach through Portugal's picturesque Alentejo region and cross the border to Seville, Spain.

The capital of Andalusia is Seville, the fourth largest city in Spain. It's on the Guadalquivir River, the second longest and only great navigable river in Spain.

In 1519, Ferdinand Magellan sailed from Seville for the first circumnavigation of the Earth.

In Seville's two-square-mile Old Town, the group will explore the Alcazar Palace, a Moorish royal historic site with ornate arches and 16th-century tiles and fountain-filled gardens. Old Town also is the site of an elaborate cathedral with Columbus's tomb, and other "must see" historical sites described in the tour brochure.

Seville is famous for its Flamenco dancing. There will be free time and a great opportunity to see these flamboyant dancers at one of the many local establishments.

This will be a sensational trip you will always remember. Reservations and deposits are already being received. The group leaves Nov. 4.

Cost of the trip is based on 32 passengers. If you plan to go, email kirktour@gmail.com and let us know.

Blue line indicates tour route from Lisbon to Barcelona.

Passports are required and must be effective for six months after the Nov. 15 return date.

Brochures with details, itinerary and reservation forms are available in the literature stands in the narthex and in the hallway by the office. We can also email one to you so you can forward it to friends and family who might be interested in joining you on this great adventure.

Joyce Leeming co-ordinates Pastor Bailey's foreign travel trips.

PW Coffee Closet will open Sunday, March 10

The PW Coffee closet is open the second Sunday of each month with a great selection of Fair Trade regular, decaf and flavored coffees. We also carry single-serve cups in three flavors, as well as many varieties of tea.

Fair Trade products are natural and delicious, but the best part is each purchase helps a family farm across the world and helps support a community's economy.

Call Carol Clark, 915-8497, for information about special orders.

Kirk's newest member, Jerry McAnarney, enjoys golf and reading books

By Arnold E. Holtberg

Our newest Kirk member, Jerry McAnarney, is a native of the small farming community of Watseka, Ill. He is the youngest of four athletic boys who were reared in the Roman Catholic Church by their loving mother.

A veteran of the United States Army, Jerry spent most of his military service in Honolulu where he played shortstop for a base baseball team.

His professional career was spent with A.O. Smith, a manufacturer of water heaters. Along the way, the company posted Jerry to El Paso, Texas, for an extended period of time and to Mexico for five years. His ultimate job with A.O. Smith was as manager of distribution and warehousing for the entire western United States.

Jerry and his first wife bought their initial piece of property in Hot Springs Village in 1997, mainly because of the many fine golf courses here. The McAnarneys moved to the Village for keeps in 2001.

When Jerry's first wife died of cancer in 2010, he considered moving away and eventually put his house up for sale. Later, Barbara, who has been a member of the Kirk for 14 years, invited Jerry to a golf outing. The "for-sale" sign came down and the McAnarneys have been married for seven years.

Prior to becoming a member, Jerry attended the Kirk off and on for years with Barbara. His decision to join the congregation was motivated by the fact that he enjoys Bill Bailey's sermons and finds the Kirk members to be friendly and welcoming.

Jerry has a son and daughter and one grandson with whom he is very close and who is a freshman at the University of Iowa. Barbara has three children and four grandchildren. Their family is spread around the country.

Jerry enjoys golf, loves to exercise and walk his dog, and is an avid, if not voracious reader, having been inspired in this respect by an uncle who was in the newspaper business. Consider this. Last year, Jerry read 102 books, mostly works of fiction and history.

Jerry is proud he was successful in the corporate world while attending some college classes but completing no degree. He admires his mother – an incredible woman who reared Jerry and his brothers in a Christian environment and helped them become who and what they are.

Perform some magic and help us build up our supply of delicious cookies!

Each Sunday at the opening of morning worship, Pastor Bill Bailey welcomes visitors to the Kirk. In closing that portion of the service, he reminds all in attendance of the coffee being served in Hoffius Hall following the worship hour “that we might meet and greet you.”

And, as if by magic, those who descend the stairs or elevator to the lower level of the building do indeed find coffee, tea (often cold and hot), water, cookies, sweet bars and cakes.

The “magic” comes at the hands of volunteers, some previously acknowledged, others anonymously. That is where you and I come in. Do you wish to perform a little anonymous magic for the Kirk, our visitors and fellow worshipers?

That favorite cookie or sweet bar or bread you make – why not make an added batch. Once cooled, store it in a freezer safe Ziploc bag, tin foil or wax paper lined box or sealed container. Place it on the stainless-steel table in the Kirk kitchen off Hoffius Hall. If you are confident, put it in the freezer.

Hocus Pocus. You are a bona fide magician to be appreciated and praised by a grateful pastor and congregation (anonymously or otherwise).

Or, of course, you could make some cookies and just show up. Anyway, the need is there and ongoing. It will not be met without your help. How about it?!

New system for volunteering to serve cookies

By Vicki Rosenquist

After much discussion, the format for signing up to help serve coffee and cookies on Sunday mornings is being changed.

Instead of Shepherd Groups being responsible each Sunday, there will be a signup poster in Hoffius Hall by the Sunday flower chart near the kitchen. Everyone will have an opportunity to sign up.

It is hoped this new way to volunteer will make it easier for everyone to help with coffee service.

Everyone is encouraged to check their calendars and find a time to fit their schedule. The new coffee system will start March 3. Barron Gage, Shepherd Group Leader, or I will be glad to answer any questions.

Vicki Rosenquist is Moderator of the Fellowship Committee.

Next PW Gathering will be on March 11

By Carol Sue Williams

Presbyterian Women will hold their next gathering on Monday, March 11.

We will gather at 11 a.m. in the sanctuary where we will be led in our Bible lesson by Pastor Bill Bailey. Then we'll go down to Hoffius Hall to be served lunch by the Greenhorns.

The lunch will cost $10, payable at the door. Reservations need to be made by March 2.

Each circle will make their reservations with their assigned caller. She will, in turn, submit the reservations to our treasurer, Norma Stevens. Her phone number is 915-8048.

Remember – a reservation made is a reservation paid. Fortunately, PW members are ladies of their word.

We wish to extend an invitation to all women of the Kirk to join us – even if you are not in a Circle. Come find out what PW is about and enjoy a wonderful lunch!

Carol Sue Williams is PW Moderator.

Easter: Time of great loss, profound renewal

*“That was the Day Between the Night Before
The blood still wet upon the hill;
His body wrapped, entombed, and still;
The great stone sealed with Roman seal and guarded well.”*

Once upon a time ...

How comforting to hear those reassuring words at the beginning of a story. A happily-ever-after must surely follow “once upon a time.”

“The Day between the Night Before ...”

On that Saturday long ago between Good Friday and Easter there did not seem to be any assurances of happily ever after. Loss of hope and despair reigned that day. The interminably long interim in our lives, the in-between times of despair and loss seek Easter’s remembrance of rebirth and hope.

Each one of us has our own personal story of loss, despair and hopefully resolution.

Mine was the loss of a beloved mother from breast cancer when I was only 10 years old. Times were difficult for many years, but in the midst of the sense of loss there was for me, even as a young child, an inexplicable awareness of presence that reassured me all would be well.

“This is my Day Between, My Night Before ...

“Suspended In this Interim

“Let me be still, let me adore, let me remember Him.”

This excerpt from Ruth Bell Graham’s Collected Poems can be found in the church library on a special shelf along with other Easter and Lenten books for your further study.

Kirk library moving into the computer era

By Lowell Gardner

The Kirk Library has been in review and reorganization for a number of months with many delays and setbacks. There were technical breakdowns, committee time restraints and materials donated by generous Kirk members.

The ultimate goal has been to bring our library into the computer age.

Sharon Gardner, Lucy Allen, Millie Croson and I have contributed the bulk of hours with assistance from Lorraine Berry, Rosalyn Halbert and Pat Kuntz.

Dick Easter, with assistance from Randy Toney, constructed a beautiful double set of shelving.

A number of books and other materials have been donated by many, and our thanks were offered at the time of giving. Heinrich Eiler and Mike Seitz gave large portions of their personal libraries to the Kirk.

Now we’re ready to begin the final push to get us up and running.

The largest number of books have been entered into the computer and the first organization of volumes on the shelves is complete.

A final check and repositioning of the shelving is needed. This will require a larger number of volunteers in teams of two.

Those who wish to help, who love books and the storing of wisdom, encourage ongoing learning and/or the pleasure of relaxing with a good read, check your calendar for a day or half a day in March. Record your availability with Sharon Gardner or me. You will be notified of future scheduling and your part in it.

Thank you.

Kirk's music is planned out well in advance

The agenda varies when Pastor Bill Bailey, organist/pianist Donna Toney and I meet each week. Our meetings always includes a discussion of the most recent worship service as well as those in upcoming weeks. It is important to discuss what works and what doesn't.

Bill reviews what he is planning for the upcoming weeks. Then the appropriate music is suggested and selected. A lot of time is devoted to playing and singing from our hymnal as well as the hymnals of other denominations. It is typical to lay out a four-week schedule.

There are times the planned music is changed to better match the final worship plan. And, on rare occasions, Bill will adjust his sermon emphasis to mesh with a musical selection. The plans are very collaborative.

Music has the power to reach people when nothing else will. Our staff and musicians take the role of music very seriously and always view it as complementary to the spoken word.

Choir Notes

Randy Toney

During the Middle Ages, church musicians were considered among the elite. Music-making was jealously guarded by the church leaders.

Thanks to reformers like Martin Luther and John Calvin, most modern churches encourage worshipers to sing out. John Wesley, early cofounder with his brother, Charles, of the Methodist movement, openly declared: "Sing lustily and with good courage."

With the strong heritage of music at the Kirk, the Rev. Wesley would likely be pleased to hear the sound of music in our services!

Kirk golfers gather March 10 for food and fun

By Jim Hess

The Kirk Sunday Golf Group will gather at 5:30 p.m. Sunday, March 10, for our annual golf's dinner at El Jimadore Restaurant, 107 Desoto Drive in the Village. All Kirk Sunday golfers are invited to attend.

The invitation is extended not only to those who play with our group each month, but anyone who would like to join our future Sunday golf outings. This is an opportunity to share previous fabled long drives and nearly round-the-cup missed putts or to establish future challenging foursomes.

If you are new to our Kirk and would like to join our Kirk Golf Group, or a current member who has not yet joined in the fun, we welcome you to take part.

We are a group of couples and single golfers of varying abilities who play 9 or 18 holes. That is your choice.

We play one of the Village courses the second Sunday of each month with dinner to follow. We play weather permitting, April through October.

If you would like additional information, call me at 501 922-2326.
